Collect

Almighty Father,
whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son, the King of all: govern the hearts and minds of those in authority, and bring the families of the nations, divided and torn apart by the ravages of sin, to be subject to his just and gentle rule; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Post Communion

Gracious Lord,
in this holy sacrament you give substance to our hope: bring us at the last to that fullness of life for which we long; through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

God! As with silent hearts

God! As with silent hearts we bring to mind how hate and war diminish humankind, we pause — and seek in worship to increase our knowledge of the things that make for peace.

Hallow our will as humbly we recall the lives of those who gave and give their all.
 We thank you, God, for women, children, men who seek to serve in love, today as then.

Give us deep faith to comfort those who mourn, high hope to share with all the newly born, strong love in our pursuit of human worth: ‘lest we forget’ the future of this earth.

So, Prince of Peace, disarm our trust in power, teach us to coax the plant of peace to flower.
 May we, impassioned by your living Word, remember forward to a world restored.

What Shall We Pray?

What Shall we pray for those who died, those on whose death our lives relied?
 Silenced by war but not denied,
 God give them peace.

What shall we pray for those who mourn friendships and love, their fruit unborn?
 Though years have passed, hearts still are torn;
 God grant them peace.

What shall we pray for those who live tied to the past they can't forgive, haunted by terrors they relive?
 God grant them peace.

What shall we pray for those who know nothing of war, and cannot show grief or regret for friend or foe?
 God give them peace.

What shall we pray for those who fear war, in some guise, may reappear looking attractive and sincere?
 God grant them peace.

God give us peace and, more than this,
 show us the path where justice is;
 and let us never be remiss working for peace that lasts.

Ode of Remembrance

*They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old: Age shall not weary them,
 nor the years condemn.
 At the going down of the sun and in the morning,*
